

About ACME GLOBAL

Acme was established in 2008 in Dubai with a single objective to deliver quality products from around the globe to its clients, which are spread across the world. Acme is known for bulk trade & distribution of rice, spices, oil seeds, gums, herbs, pulses, lentils, beverages, Turkish delights and chocolates.

Dubai has been the international hub for world class trading and a modern infrastructure for global business. Apart from our Dubai location, Acme has now expanded its offices across Pakistan, Vietnam & China.

At Acme, we firmly believe it is our responsibility to ensure all of our clients receive the best and highest quality of products at reasonable prices. We meet our client requirements by making the most stringent timelines, and carry out our client's orders accurately, without delays. We are committed to giving back to the community we live and work in. Thus we make sure our products are of hygienic quality and meet the microbiological profile.

Acme's philosophy is aimed at delivering value to its clients, and earning unsurpassed reputation for our services and products. Not only in UAE food market, but across the world. To ensure reaching newer destinations across the world, we welcome new opportunities in developing and expanding our products.

Acme in Pakistan owns and operates a fully automatic rice processing plant. Our rice mill was established in 2006, and designed to supply best quality rice from Pakistan to international rice importers, distributors and retailers around the world. We operate a processing mill, fully equipped with modern machinery and spacious warehouses that functions by well-trained and skilled staff and is supervised by a professional management team.

In Vietnam, Acme's offices are run by highly specialized multilingual staff, which caters to supplying the oil seeds to local markets. Our products from the Vietnamese agriculture are exported to global food markets as well.

We are constantly expanding to newer territories. We want to ensure that we deliver the best quality products across the world. We also believe in nurturing new business relationships and adding more value to the existing clientele.

Acme is your first choice to connect with a highly resourceful team and great quality products which meet all your requirements.
